

Home / Kent County News / Community
http://www.myeasternshoremnd.com/kent_county_news/community/article_c132f42d-85b6-5f51-9a33-78aad052d3ef.html

Rod and gun club raises money for scholarship fund

Dec 12, 2016

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

Participants line up for the Talbot Rod and Gun Club's KC Cast and Blast Sunday, Dec. 11. The event raised money for the Kirby Allen Council Scholarship Fund.

EASTON — On Dec. 11, the Talbot Rod and Gun Club was proud to host the KC Cast and Blast, with all funds raised going to the Kirby Allen Council Scholarship Fund.

"It was a great day, with great people for a great cause," said event organizer Joe Capp.

The event raised $3,000.

Sponsors included Pizza Hut, Shore Tackle and Custom Rods, Bustem Baits, Kent Island Scuba, Baycraft Printing, Rise Up Coffee, Chesapeake Outdoors, Dunkin Donuts, Fishing For Muscular Dystrophy and the Fisherman's Inn.

Landscaping Project?
We have what you need.

GILLESPIE & SON, INC

EP HENRY
AUTHORIZED LANDSCAPING DISTRIBUTOR

Locally Owned supplier since 1992
Chestertown, MD

Ready Mix Pavers Masonry Aggregate Septic Tanks

High score skeet was Doug Bramble, runner-up skeet was Jay Squares, high team skeet was Team Talbot, high team flurry shoot was Team Harris and the Lucky Dog award went to Thumper of Chesapeake Outdoors.

The casting competition was won by Josh Lowery who received a custom rod from Shore Tackle and Custom Rods and the runner-up was Joel Haggerty who received a Bustem Bait assortment.

Kirby Allen Council of Chestertown passed away from injuries sustained in an ATV accident on Jun 14; he was 9.